

Report on CSR Activity by XL India

A team from XL India spent a day with the students of Ashtvakra School under their corporate social responsibility on 31st August 2017 in the premises of Ashtavakra School.

The entire team of XL India performed a number of activities including parachute game, dance, singing, play etc. They also cut the cake with all the students and enjoyed to their fullest away from their daily routine.