Purpose of the Event:

Teacher's Day is celebrated on 5th September every year on the occasion of the birth anniversary of India's second President, Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan; Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was of the opinion that "teachers should be the best minds in the country". On every September 5, Teacher's Day is celebrated all over India as an occasion to appreciate and acknowledge the efforts and hard work of our teachers in making us sophisticated and responsible individuals.

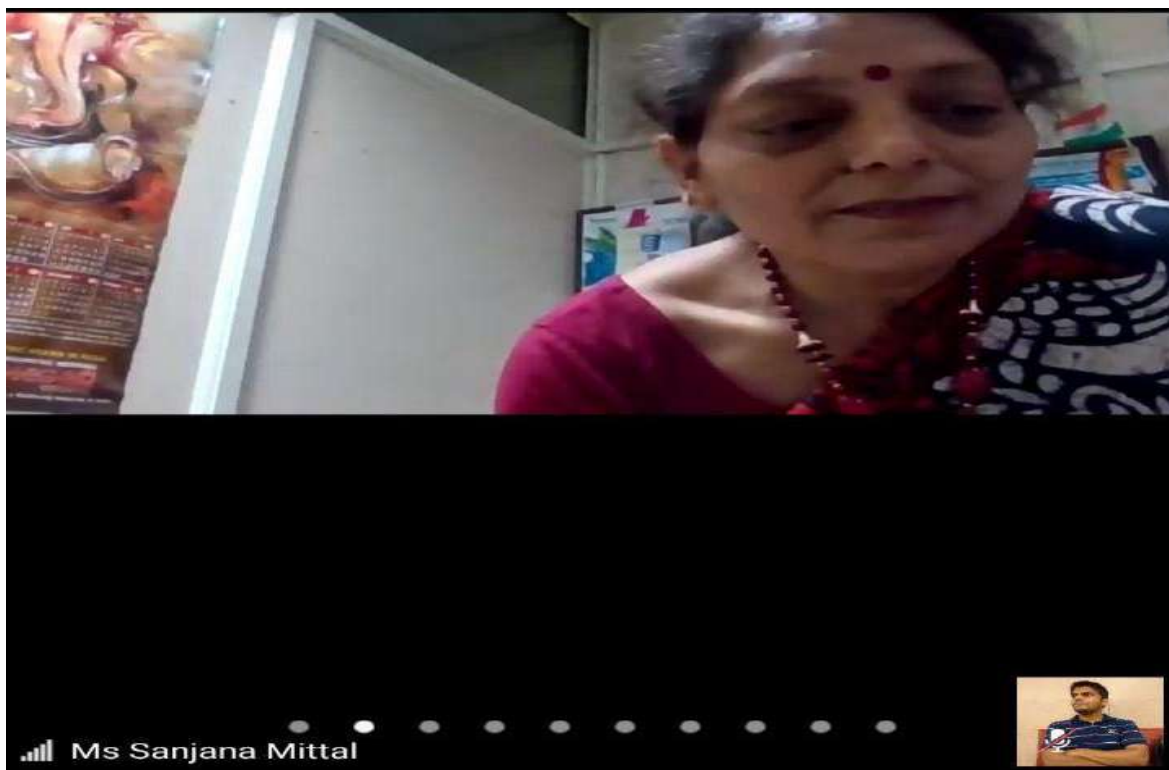

Objectives:

1. To encourage young people in the world to want to have teaching as a profession .
2. Join efforts to create a much more sustainable world.
3. In fact, every year on this date an analysis of the educational situation across the planet is made, a balance of the achievements is made and some points that are fundamental when attracting and conserving the brightest minds are addressed of the education sector.

Inaugural Session:

The celebration started with an inaugural speech by Dr. Anmol Arora, Director AIRSR. He congratulated the staff and students for organizing virtual celebration of teachers day. He applauded the efforts of teachers throughout the year in imparting quality education to students.

Ms. Sanjana Mittal, Deputy Director and CAO of AIRSR , expressed her thoughts by defining Teacher (Guru) who has always been treated next to god in Indian mythology. A teacher is the highest contributor to making us a better human. A teacher is a key person in our life who helps us grow our mentally and socially. If it has not been for teachers, brilliance would have been just a word. It is a teacher who guides us and helps us nurture our talent.

Students from the all department, expressed their gratitude and appreciation for their teachers on this day. They spoke that, teachers play a vital role in making their pupil accountable citizens of tomorrow and wonderful human beings. They are the cornerstone of students' future and there's nothing worth enough to gratify them for their selfless service and commitment. They thanked and appreciated their teachers for their contribution and guidance.

A virtual poetry and slogan competition was organized for the students. Students recited wonderful self composed poems to express their gratitude for their teachers. Slogan competition paved way for the students to showcase their creative skills.

The vote of thanks was presented by Mr Mayank Rohella , faculty AIRSR. The Program was all together a great success.

Learning Outcomes:

1. The students learnt to value their teachers.
2. The students learnt the achievements of their teachers.
3. The students got motivated to choose teaching as profession in their future.
