Event: Christmas Day

Day: - 23rd December 2022

Venue: Ashtavakra Institute of Rehabilitation Sciences & Research

Convener: Ms. Mansa Verma (Asst. professor VI Dept)

No of students: 50

Objectives :

1. To aware the students to remember the birth of Jesus Christ.
2. To allow the students to get social in a less formal setting, with less strict expectations and encourages better communication and a more friendly environment.
3. To spread love and harmony among people of different religions.
4. To make the end of the year a beautiful one.

REPORT OF THE EVENT

Christmas is a time to remember that when Jesus was born on 25th Dec, God became human. This allowed God to save humanity from sin. Without the incarnation of Jesus, Christianity could not exist. Christmas is a time for Christians to remember that they are part of a global community, despite differences within Christianity. This year on 23th Dec, our institute organized a program to celebrate Christmas. The celebration was held in college itself. All the students and faculty members were very excited and fully enthusiasm for the celebration. The ceremony began with prayer at 9:30 AM. After that various programs were organized one after the other. One of which was a performance where a group of students presented a beautiful dance on the theme of Christmas. After that, a man disguised as Santa Clause came with a bag containing several gifts. Santa Clause was roaming all over the auditorium giving presents to all the little children. Also, the song Jingle Bells was being played in the background. After all the programs were over, the Deputy Director Mrs. Sanjana Mittal wished everyone a very happy Christmas and also gave a short motivational speech. The program was a great success.

Learning outcomes

- The students were able to know about the Christmas festival.
- The students were able to understand the Christian religious belief.
- The students were able to understand the diversity in culture.
- The students were able to encourage better communication and a more friendly environment
