Report

Ambedkar Jayanti program was organized by Ashtavakra Institute of Rehabilitation Sciences on 13th April 2023, Thursday. The program started with an introductory speech on Ambedkar by Mr. Ramtirath Prajapati, in which he expressed his views. He explained that those who are contributing to the development and keeping their thoughts independently are making their prominent place in the society, all classes are working together, getting education, and women are being given full respect which they deserve. Everything is the gift of Baba Ambedkar, we all together bow down to his glory story.

On the other hand, students of D Ed SE (VI) Bharti, Nishita, Yogita and Pratibha presented Ambedkar's thoughts in a very poignant way through role play, in which students showed untouchability spread in the society and how Ambedkar ji ended it.. Mr. Sandeep Upadhyay; HOD of VI Dept said that in present scenario equality is the need of an hour for bringing inclusion in full swing .It was followed by display of posters in which there was description of the policies of Baba Ambedkar . Miss Mansa Verma gave her full contribution in this program and encouraged all the children, to work for the equality in the times to come. Thereafter Mrs. Sanjana Mittal; Deputy Director of Ashtavakra Institute congratulated the girl students for their wonderful presentation through posters and play. The event was fruitful for all the participants

Learning Outcomes :

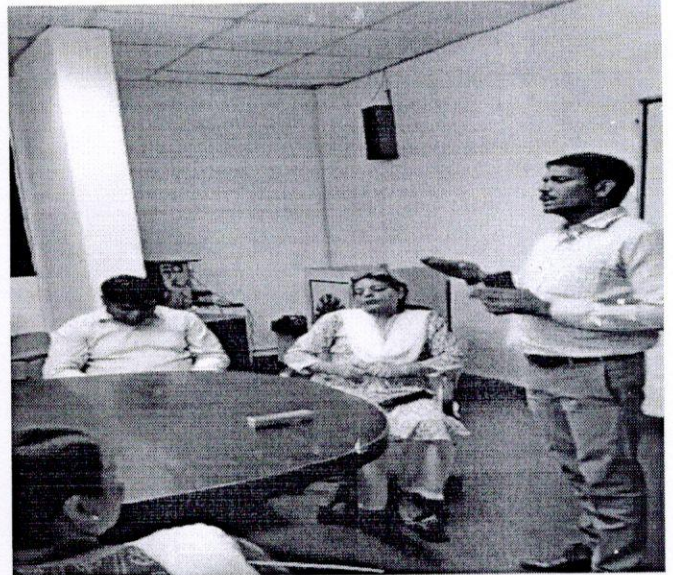

1. The students were able to create awareness regarding the great contribution made by Dr Ambedkar Ji.
2. The students were able to grasp the policies made by Dr. BR Ambedkar.
3. The students got the knowledge of the condition of women in past and the struggle made by Dr Ambedkar ji.
4. The students got the knowledge of reservation made in the policies for backward community and women who were treated very brutally.
