Report

An awareness program on Protection and prevention of Environment was organized by students of B.Ed SE (ASD). The program began with an motivational speech presented by Ms Sanjana Mittal; Deputy Director of Ashtvakra in which she elaborated that environmental protection is improving, defending, and maintaining the quality of the environment. The main methods of environmental protection are recycling, reusing, and reducing; however, some other methods such as Green Energy production, green transportation development, and eco-friendly industrialization also exist. Thereafter a poster making competition was organized on the theme "Mission Life". The students expressed their views regarding the Protection and prevention of environment. It was followed by group discussion in which they shared their point of view. The program was a great success.
