Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

A Blood donation camp was organized by our NSS unit, in collaboration with Guru Nanak Dev Charitable Blood Center, through which more than 36 units of blood was donated by students and the staff members of our Ashtavakra Institute of Rehabilitation Sciences & Research . It is a way of our college to express gesture in bringing a ray of hope to contribute to the serious problems of acutes shortage of blood. Donation of blood is very critical and crucial for saving lives many patients and those who have met with accidents and other health conditions. It is as such a great service or contribution to the society and people living in it. The event was successful in creating awareness amongst the students and

Feedback	My experience during the whole journey of the initiative was quite enlightening. Looking at the enthusiasm of the donors and the organizing team, it also encouraged the patients' relatives and professors to come forward for the donation. The success of the event has further encouraged me to carry out such more awareness projects in the future.
