Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*	On 05th February 2024, the Happiness Club organized a visit to a slum area to distribute clothes to underprivileged families. This outreach initiative was led by Ms. Anoushka Sharma, the in-charge of the Happiness Club, and supported by dedicated student volunteers of LD Dept.. The primary goal of this visit was to help those in need by providing essential clothing items, while fostering empathy and social responsibility among students. The event was planned meticulously, through each stage of preparation. The first step involved organizing a donation drive, which received an overwhelming response from the school community. The distribution was conducted systematically to avoid any chaos, with the volunteers dividing themselves into groups to manage different sections of the area. Ms. Sharma took charge of coordinating the teams, ensuring that the distribution was carried out smoothly. In addition to handing out clothes, the volunteers took time to interact with the residents, especially the children, and listened to their stories and concerns. This gesture helped in establishing a deeper connection between the students and the community, turning the act of giving into a shared moment of learning and understanding. Ms. Anoushka praised the hard work of the volunteers and acknowledged the contributions from the donors. She expressed her appreciation for the students' efforts and their willingness to take time out for such a noble cause. The visit to the slum area was not just an act of distribution but a lesson in kindness, gratitude, and humanity. The volunteers returned with a renewed sense of compassion and a commitment to work for the betterment of society. Through this initiative, the Happiness Club successfully demonstrated how small acts of generosity can make a big difference in the lives of others.
