The Happiness Club of AIRSR organized a commendable 'Food Distribution Activity' aimed at addressing food insecurity among the underprivileged.

This initiative was led by Ms. Anoushka Sharma, In-charge of the Happiness Club, and Mr. Vikas Kumar, Faculty AIRSR. The activity took place on 24TH Sept 2024. The primary objective of the event was to spread joy and relief to the less fortunate, aligning with the core values of the Happiness Club. Both students and faculty members actively participated, ensuring that the distribution process was smooth, respectful, and impactful. Ms. Anoushka Sharma expressed her pride in the volunteers and highlighted the importance of such initiatives in promoting compassion and kindness within the community. "It is our responsibility to give back to society, and small efforts like these can make a significant difference in people's lives," she said. Mr. Vikas Kumar also lauded the efforts of the students, stating, "Such activities not only provide immediate relief to those in need but also instill a sense of social responsibility in our youth." The beneficiaries of the event expressed their heartfelt gratitude, with many mentioning how such initiatives provide hope and support during challenging times. Students gain firsthand knowledge of food insecurity and poverty, understanding the challenges faced by marginalized communities. Learners understand the significance of community service and their role as active contributors to societal betterment. The Happiness Club plans to continue organizing similar events in the future, reinforcing its commitment to spreading positivity and happiness within society. This event stands as a testament to the power of community-driven efforts in making a meaningful impact on the lives of others.
