Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

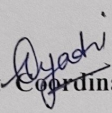

The Electoral Literacy Club of Ashtavakra Institute of Rehabilitation Sciences and Research successfully organized an awareness session on elections for B.Ed. students. The session, led by Ms. Jyoti, aimed to enhance students' understanding of the electoral system and the significance of voting.

During the event, students participated in a quiz and poster-making focused on voting awareness. The competition allowed students to express their creativity while emphasizing crucial aspects of civic responsibility. Various themes were explored, including the importance of individual votes, the impact of civic participation, and the history of voting rights.

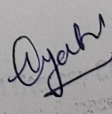

Through engaging discussions and interactive activities, students gained insights into the Indian election system, voting values, and the role of democracy. They were also introduced to different electoral processes and responsibilities.

The event successfully fostered awareness about elections, empowering students to become responsible and informed voters in the future.
