Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

The Ashtavakra Institute of Rehabilitation Sciences and Research (AIRSR) successfully hosted a mock drill under the Civil Defence Operation Shield on 29th May 2025. The event was conducted in collaboration with the Civil Defence Department, Delhi, with the aim of enhancing awareness and preparedness among students, faculty, and staff for emergency response during disasters.

The operation included a live evacuation drill, fire safety demonstrations, and basic rescue techniques. Civil Defence volunteers demonstrated the correct use of fire extinguishers, rescue operations for persons with disabilities, and first-aid procedures. Emphasis was laid on the importance of remaining calm and responsive during emergency situations.

Students actively participated and engaged with civil defence personnel, gaining practical insights into disaster management strategies. Special sessions were held to address challenges faced during evacuations in inclusive settings and how to ensure safety for all, especially individuals with disabilities.

The mock drill was well-received and served as an important experiential learning activity. It successfully instilled values of alertness, community service, and social responsibility among participants.
